Clear Leisure Plc
("Clear Leisure" or "the Company")

Court Hearing Update

The Company advises shareholders that it presented all the relevant documentation and financial warranties to the Ivrea court on Friday 11 April, as scheduled. The Directors are confident the Company's case was received positively and they will update shareholders as to the final ruling of the court, once the judge has considered the aforementioned documents. Due to the Easter holidays, the Company expects this will be towards the end of the month.
