Final Results – Delay and Suspension

The board of Clear Leisure plc regrets that the release of the annual accounts for the year ended 31st December 2016 has been slightly delayed and that as a consequence, trading in the Company's shares on AIM has been suspended. This delay has been brought about by the often lengthy process of getting accounting and financial information in respect of the Company's Italian investments and has been compounded by the distraction to senior management occasioned by the recent court hearings, announced on 15th and 26th June 2017, in respect Company's subsidiary Mediapolis srl. The Board expects that the accounts will be released within the next few days.
